2 Week writing Project – Link to Music

Date Set: 20.4.20
Hand in Date: 1.5.20

You are going to become a song writer!

1. What is your favourite song? What is it that makes you want to listen to it again and again? Think carefully about the words. Are there any words you really like singing? Why?
2. Play clip on webpage below:
<https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/class-clips-video/english-ks2-write-song-lyrics/znh7nb>
3. Choose a piece of music you are familiar with or that has a good rhythm or beat. You could use the examples on the webpage above. Practice clapping out the rhythm or the beat.
4. Next choose a topic – it could be about yourself, something you're passionate about or school. On a piece of paper, jot down notes about your topic including all the details you may wish to include. Before coming up with a title for your song (1-4 words long ideally).
5. Begin by listening to the chorus of the song and then have a go at writing your lyrics for this part. The chorus is the foundation of the song and the most memorable part for the listener. You must make sure it's catchy and hooks the listener. If it sticks in your head for 3 days or more, then you know it's a good one. The chorus will often contain the title as part of the lyrics. How many lines will your chorus have? 3...4...5...?
6. Then move onto the verses. How many verses will you have? How many lines will there be in each verse? The verse tells the story of the song. It expands on what is sung in the chorus, adding more detail.

Things to consider including in your lyrics:

- Simile:
 - Like a Rolling Stone – Bob Dylan
- Metaphor:
 - Baby I'm a Firework – Katy Perry
- Personification:
 - Mr Blue Sky – Electric Light Orchestra

Thinking Questions:

What am I trying to say with this song?

How can I express my thoughts/feelings/ideas in an interesting way?

Which words do I want to repeat as a chorus/hook?

Is there an image I can use to symbolise thoughts/ideas/feelings?

Keep practising, editing and improving. Sing it to your family and get them to give you feedback on their favourite parts and bits which they may feel don't flow as well.

You may wish to research more about how to write a song, how to create its structure.

You will have 2 weeks to create your song lyrics. We will have set you a blank template through 2Do on Purple Mash which will allow you to type in your lyrics and hand them in by Friday 1st May. Don't forget to write the name of the piece of music so that we can listen to it as we sing your lyrics.
