

Draw a diagram that shows the steps of the sugar growing, harvesting and transporting process. For an extra challenge, research what happens to sugar cane once it arrives in the factory.	How has Chifundo's family benefited from the Fairtrade Premium? Write a sentence or draw a picture to illustrate your answer.	Using coloured pencils, paints or another medium of your choice, create a picture of a sugar cane crop in Malawi. You can use a computer or tablet to research pictures of sugar cane to help you.
Chifundo loves to play football with his friends. In the film, we saw that Chifundo had made a football using string and other materials. Make your own toy using recycled materials.	 AGES 5-11	Next time your family are shopping; can you find sugar with the FAIRTRADE Mark? Bake or cook using Fairtrade sugar as an ingredient.
Write a letter telling Chifundo about your life. Use the questions below to help you. How old are you? Do you have any pets? What do you like to do with your friends? What would you like to be when you grow up? How do you help out at home?	'Malawi is a good place! I hope that one day you will visit.' Imagine you are travelling to visit Chifundo. Research how to get there, where you will visit and what you need to pack for your adventure! Remember to check the weather!	Chifundo lives in Kasinthula village in Malawi. Find Malawi on a map? Can you find Chifundo's village? Using your map, identify the geographical features that surround Kasinthula. Is it mountainous? Is there a lake nearby? Illustrate your findings.